The Fine Print

Registration: Your entire class fee is required at sign-up to reserve your place in class and a supply list will be given at that time. You can register in person, by phone with a credit card, or by mail (check enclosed). You will receive a supply list once you have registered for a class. We would appreciate your purchase of needed supplies from us. Upon registration, you will receive a coupon for 10% off your class supplies!

Refunds: Seven days notice will be required for class refund or transfer. No refund of any monies paid will be given if student cancellation is made during the week before class or if student does not show up for class. If a class is cancelled by The Quilt Asylum, all monies paid will be gladly refunded, transferred to another class, or held for store credit.

Miscellaneous: All classes require a minimum of students in order for the class to make (usually 2 or 3) and if necessary, classes will be cancelled due to lack of enrollment 7 days prior to scheduled date. Early registration helps us accommodate you better and guarantee that a class will make. Classes that are scheduled over lunchtime have a lunch break factored in. A refrigerator and microwave are available for student use.

All class schedules and photos of projects can be found on-line at: www.thequiltasylum.com
